

RailSys® Training - Master rail transport planning

While it is possible to use RailSys® intuitively, we would like to offer to teach your employees the handling of our software. Thus, they learn how to use RailSys® properly and can bring your results to perfection.

All of the workshops can take place at your premises. If required, the training courses can of course also be held online.

	Infrastructure	Timetable	Simulation
Introduction	- Day 1 - Up to 10 participants - Presentation documents included	- Day 1 - Up to 10 participants - Presentation documents included	- Day 1 - Up to 10 participants - Presentation documents included
Basics	- Basics: - Infrastructure management - Signalling systems - Construction management - Day 1 to 3 - Up to 4 participants - Interactive - Training documents included - Software licences included	- Basics: - Train path application and management - Long term and short term planning - Conflict management - Day 1 to 3 - Up to 4 participants - Interactive - Training documents included - Software licences included	- Basics: - Operational simulation - Quality evaluation - Parameter determination - Day 1 to 3 - Up to 4 participants - Interactive - Training documents included - Software licences included
Advanced	- Individual training program - Day 2 to 5 - Up to 4 participants - Interactive - Training documents included - Software licences included	- Individual training program - Day 2 to 5 - Up to 4 participants - Interactive - Training documents included - Software licences included	- Individual training program - Day 2 to 5 - Up to 4 participants - Interactive - Training documents included - Software licences included